Our Speakers

Michael Peterson, MD, PhD

Topic: Career Path in Academic Psychiatry

Dr. Peterson is currently an Associate Professor at the University of Wisconsin, Director of Hospital Psychiatric Services, and Psychiatry Department Block Leader for the School of Medicine and Public Health. He will speak about his career path in academic psychiatry, and the variety of options that academics can provide. His work has included clinical, research, education, and administrative/leadership roles. He will also try to express why he keeps doing what he does.

Charles David Cash, JD, LLM

Topic: Contracts and Malpractice Coverage

Malpractice coverage is vital for practice yet rarely discussed during residency. As assistant vice president for risk management at PRMS, Mr. Cash is in a unique position to discuss how to review and negotiate these contracts.

Brian Hart, MD

Topic: Advocating for Yourself and the Patient

Dr. Hart serves as the clinical chief of the emergency psychiatry, inpatient psychiatry, and consultation psychiatry services for Indiana's largest community mental health center, a division of Eskenazi Health. He is also a member of the Political Action Committee Board for the American Psychiatric Association and has long followed legislative activity. Dr. Hart will explore advocacy options available to psychiatrists in and out of residency.

Joel Niese, MDiv

Topic: Your Financial Path After Residency

Joel is from Ohio, married to wife Meagan, has a 5 year old daughter and twins boys who are 3. He loves to ride bikes, workout, hike, eat food, and drink microbrews. He attended the Ohio State University, has an MDiv from Southern Seminary in Louisville, and currently holds FINRA registrations Series 7 and 66 along with his Life and Health insurance licenses. He has a variety of industry experience as mentor and life coach to college students, physician recruiter (Psychiatry), and currently is a Financial Consultant at German American Bank specializing in financial and retirement planning. Mr. Niese will discuss loan payback options and other related financial concerns of residents looking beyond graduation.

The expenses of this program have been underwritten by Professional Risk Management Services, Inc. (PRMS).
