Overview

The focus of this session is on messaging, how to create a message prior to an interview and how to stay on that message during the interview. The session also provides a brief overview of the current media landscape and provides basic tips for interviews.

Learning Objectives

- 1) Identify tools for developing messages for the media and learn how to conduct successful interviews.
- 2) Become more comfortable with engaging media outlets.
- 3) Learn how to take control and steer media encounters to ensure your message is being appropriately conveyed.

Faculty

Glenn O'Neal, is the Deputy Chief of Communications and the Director of the Office of Corporate Communications and Public Affairs for the American Psychiatric Association (APA). In that role, Glenn oversees the media relations, social media and public relations functions of the APA. Prior to joining the APA in December 2014, Glenn was a journalist with more than two decades of experience as a reporter and assignment editor. He spent the last 14 years of his journalism career as an Assignment Editor at USA Today, managing teams of reporters on short-term and long-term coverage for the paper and its website.

Disclosure

Mr. O'Neal has reported that neither he nor his spouse/partner has any financial relationship with any commercial interests. Additionally, he will not be discussing unapproved or investigational use of any product.
